Then be sure to use that sentence in each piece of gross sales and promotional material, and each time anybody asks you about your ebook.

Besides selling your books assiduously on-line, there are a number of different methods that may make it easier to promote more books.

One is to give something away without cost with your guide, akin to a priceless bonus item. Or bundle several ebooks under one price, which lowers the price for each book if they have been sold separately.

An efficient method for figuring out a price is to send out a survey to your current customers. If these prospects have already purchased an e-book from you, ask for their opinion when it comes to price. Do this by creating a sales page for the brand new e-book, but do not embody a value on that page. As a substitute, add a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to assist you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

One other strategy is to test out prices by creating a number of duplicate gross sales pages with different prices on every page. Make certain your sales copy is precisely the similar on every page, and includes your promoting-deal with sentence. Then figure out for every page the conversion ratio between visitors to your website and sales of your book. This will inform you what your optimum worth is.

Finally, when you've written a book that solves a drawback or presents a new method, your guide will usher in both visitors and profits. So be sure to write that selling-handle sentence that sums up what problem your book solves and what the advantages of your 1240 e book can be to the shoppers who purchase it. And then watch your market come to you!
